

Spiritual Performance

Spiritual performance is the believer applying the epignosis Bible doctrine in their soul to the life they live. In doing so, correct motivation is critical. Conviction motivates spiritual performance. Planning then facilitates spiritual performance.

The sequence then would be to exercise positive volition toward the plan of God, the communicator teaching it, and toward the Word of God by listening to the pastor-teacher's teaching while being filled with the Holy Spirit. This would result in the Holy Spirit teaching your human spirit so you can then understand what was taught resulting in the Holy Spirit transferring that spiritual phenomena to the mind or left lobe of the soul as gnosis or spiritual knowledge. Expressing faith belief in that gnosis results in the Holy Spirit transferring it to the heart or the right lobe of the soul as epignosis or full knowledge. Only here can Bible doctrine be applied. God then provides testing in real life necessitating the application of the epignosis doctrine. See category on the Grace Apparatus for Perception.

Spiritual performance is the believer applying Bible doctrine to life's situations and decisions. It is a matter of doing. God provides the divine enablement of the Holy Spirit to convert the academic Bible doctrine into spiritually applicable doctrine. Isaiah 10:12; Psalms 57:2.

"So it will be that when the Lord has completed all His work on Mount Zion and on Jerusalem, He will say, 'I will punish the fruit of the arrogant heart of the king of Assyria and the pomp of his haughtiness.'" (Isaiah 10:12, NASB)

"I will cry to God Most High, To God who accomplishes all things for me." (Psalms 57:2, NASB)

There are situations when other people are necessary in assisting in the application of a doctrine. The first step in the direction of spiritual performance is positive volition to the proper application of that doctrine. Exodus 18:18; Psalms 119:106; Psalms 119:112.

"You will surely wear out, both yourself and these people who are with you, for the task is too heavy for you; you cannot do it alone." (Exodus 18:18, NASB)

"I have sworn and I will confirm it, That I will keep Your righteous ordinances." (Psalms 119:106, NASB)

"I have inclined my heart to perform Your statutes Forever, even to the end." (Psalms 119:112, NASB)

Spiritual performance is to be done on a daily basis. Spiritual performance is not accomplished in a general way, but by doing the specifics. Psalms 61:8; Rom. 15:28.

"So I will sing praise to Your name forever, That I may pay my vows day by day." (Psalms 61:8, NASB)

"Therefore, when I have finished this, and have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will go on by way of you to Spain." (Romans 15:28, NASB)

Spiritual performance of the believer is directly related to the performance of God. As the performance of God is based on His character, the performance of the believer is based on the character of Christ being formed in us or spiritual maturity. Gal. 4:19; Rom. 4:21.

"My children, with whom I am again in labor until Christ is formed in you—" (Galatians 4:19, NASB)

"and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform." (Romans 4:21, NASB)

One of the great hindrances to spiritual performance in application is the matter of know-how. We apply doctrine on a daily basis and bring it to a close each day. We close out the day, or a doctrine, by applying it. Rom. 7:18; Luke 2:39.

"For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not." (Romans 7:18, NASB)

"When they had performed everything according to the Law of the Lord, they returned to Galilee, to their own city of Nazareth." (Luke 2:39, NASB)

Spiritual performance is an event which verifies God's promises. Application of a specific doctrine is the verification of the academic understanding and belief in that doctrine. Luke 1:45.

""And blessed is she who believed that there would be a fulfillment of what had been spoken to her by the Lord."" (Luke 1:45, NASB)

Behind every spiritual performance there is a right attitude, a right understanding, a right plan, and a right purpose. Prov. 20:18; Jer. 49:20; Jer. 49:30; Jer. 50:45; Jer. 51:29.

"Prepare plans by consultation, And make war by wise guidance." (Proverbs 20:18, NASB)

"Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has planned against Edom, and His purposes which He has purposed against the inhabitants of Teman: surely they will drag them off, even the little ones of the flock; surely He will make their pasture desolate because of them." (Jeremiah 49:20, NASB)

""Run away, flee! Dwell in the depths, O inhabitants of Hazor," declares the LORD; "For Nebuchadnezzar king of Babylon has formed a plan against you And devised a scheme against you." (Jeremiah 49:30, NASB)

"Therefore hear the plan of the LORD which He has planned against Babylon, and His purposes which He has purposed against the land of the Chaldeans: surely they will drag them off, even the little ones of the flock; surely He will make their pasture desolate because of them." (Jeremiah 50:45, NASB)

"So the land quakes and writhes, For the purposes of the LORD against Babylon stand, To make the land of Babylon A desolation without inhabitants." (Jeremiah 51:29, NASB)

There must be positive volition to learn and apply Bible doctrine. In the application is a decided mental attitude of purpose to apply that doctrine or doctrines. Purposes made have within them a relationship to enjoyment or pleasure. Prov. 1:4; Isaiah 44:28.

"To give prudence to the naive, To the youth knowledge and discretion," (Proverbs 1:4, NASB)

"" It is I who says of Cyrus, ' He is My shepherd! And he will perform all My desire.' And he declares of Jerusalem, 'She will be built,' And of the temple, 'Your foundation will be laid.'"" (Isaiah 44:28, NASB)

Some purposes line up with your desires, while some purposes line up with your responsibilities. Getting doctrine daily may line up with your desires, while putting money in the offering plate may only line up with your responsibility. Determining purposes is only the first phase of performance, carrying them out is the objective. Isaiah 48:14.

""Assemble, all of you, and listen! Who among them has declared these things? The LORD loves him; he will carry out His good pleasure on Babylon, And His arm will be against the Chaldeans." (Isaiah 48:14, NASB)

Purposes are made while shutting out other interfering and distracting things. Purposes must be firmly established in the heart but the Lord has to direct the believer in bringing them to completion. He does this one step at a time. Prov. 16:30; Prov. 16:9.

"He who winks his eyes does so to devise perverse things; He who compresses his lips brings evil to pass." (Proverbs 16:30, NASB)

"The mind of man plans his way, But the LORD directs his steps." (Proverbs 16:9, NASB)

Greek and Hebrew Words for Spiritual Performance

In Romans 15:28, 2 Corinthians 8:11, Philippians 1:6, and 2 Corinthians 8:6, ἐπιτελέω (epiteleō) means to accomplish, finish, perfect, execute, complete.

"Therefore, when I have finished this, and have put my seal on this fruit of theirs, I will go on by way of you to Spain." (Romans 15:28, NASB)

"But now finish doing it also, so that just as there was the readiness to desire it, so there may be also the completion of it by your ability." (2 Corinthians 8:11, NASB)

"For I am confident of this very thing, that He who began a good work in you will perfect it until the day of Christ Jesus." (Philippians 1:6, NASB)

"So we urged Titus that as he had previously made a beginning, so he would also complete in you this gracious work as well." (2 Corinthians 8:6, NASB)

In Romans 7:15, Romans 7:17-18, Romans 7:20, and Ephesians 6:13, κατεργάζομαι (katergazomai) means to do, to perform, accomplish, to achieve.

"For what I am doing, I do not understand; for I am not practicing what I would like to do, but I am doing the very thing I hate." (Romans 7:15, NASB)

"So now, no longer am I the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me. For I know that nothing good dwells in me, that is, in my flesh; for the willing is present in me, but the doing of the good is not." (Romans 7:17-18, NASB)

"But if I am doing the very thing I do not want, I am no longer the one doing it, but sin which dwells in me." (Romans 7:20, NASB)

"Therefore, take up the full armor of God, so that you will be able to resist in the evil day, and having done everything, to stand firm." (Ephesians 6:13, NASB)

In Romans 4:21, ἐργάζομαι (ergazomai) means to perform, to actually accomplish.

"and being fully assured that what God had promised, He was able also to perform." (Romans 4:21, NASB)
