

Jesus Christ, The King (Scriptural References)

Proclamation of the King

The Sermon on the Mount was a crash program of Bible doctrine taught by Jesus Christ to His disciples. Our Lord taught the following doctrines in the Sermon the Mount found in Matthew 5-7.

Inner happiness. The edification complex of the soul of the believer as a national beacon and preservative. Matthew 5:1-12.

Fulfillment of the Law. Matthew 5:17-30.

The divine institutions and their application. Matthew 5:31-48.

Giving. Matthew 6:1-4.

Prayer and the pattern of prayer. Matthew 6:5-15.

Fasting. Matthew 6:16-18.

Riches. Matthew 6:19-24.

Faith-rest. Matthew 6:25-34.

Discernment. Matthew 7:1-6.

Prayer and its application. Matthew 7:7-11.

Fairness and justice. Matthew 7:12.

Salvation. Matthew 7:13-14.

False teachers. Matthew 7:15-23.

The basics of the edification complex of the soul. Matthew 7:24-29.

Authority of the King

Authority over Disease. Matthew 8:1-15.

Authority over Demons. Matthew 8:16-17, Matthew 8:28-34.

Authority over Human Viewpoint. Matthew 8:18-22.

Authority over Nature. Matthew 8:23-27.

Authority to Forgive. Matthew 9:1-8.

Authority over Men. Matthew 9:9-17.

Authority over Death. Matthew 9:18-26.

Concluding ministries. Matthew 9:27-38.

Authority over the Twelve Disciples. Matthew 10:1-42.

Opposition to the King

The Opposition of Reversion: John the Baptist. Matthew 11:1-19.

The Opposition of Rejection. Matthew 11:20-27.

You are a liar. You are illegitimate. You are demon-possessed. John 8.

The Opposition of Religion. Matthew 12:1-50.

Parables of the King

Parable of the Sower. Reception of the Word by the believer and unbeliever from 70 AD to the Second Advent. Matthew 13:1-23.

Parable of the Tares and Wheat. Reception of the Word at the Second Advent. Matthew 13:24-30, Matthew 13:36-43.

Parable of the Grain of Mustard Seed. Reception of the Word by unbelievers in the Church Age. Matthew 13:31-32.

Parable of the Leaven. Reception of the Word by Tribulation unbelievers. Matthew 13:33-35.

Parable of the Treasure. Reception of the Word by believing Israel during the Tribulation and their restoration. Matthew 13:44.

Parable of the Pearl. Reception of the Word by believers in the Church Age--edification complex of the soul. Matthew 13:45-46.

Parable of the Drag-Net. Reception of the Word by believers, unbelievers at the Second Advent--Who will go into the Millennium. Matthew 13:47.

Revelation and Instruction of the King

Matthew 14-20.