

Faith

Faith is a system of perception which accepts an established criterion as the basis of reality. This criterion is outside the capability of the individual and is non-meritorious by nature. Believers have the Bible in the original languages as the established criterion.

Faith is equivalent to confidence in the authority and veracity of the source. For example, salvation gained only by faith that is based on the authority and veracity of the Gospel of Jesus Christ. Faith is the only system of human perception that is non-meritorious. It is the basic system of thinking of the human race. Eph. 2:8-9.

“For by grace you have been saved through faith; and that not of yourselves, it is the gift of God; not as a result of works, so that no one may boast.” (Ephesians 2:8-9, NASB)

Faith is the only system of perception that is compatible with grace. In God's grace, Christ receives all of the merit. Since the Word of God is the very mind of Christ, Bible doctrine has all of the merit, not how we apply it to our lives. In application of Bible doctrine, God the Holy Spirit has all of the merit because the spiritual life is empowered by the Holy Spirit. 1 Cor. 2:16.

“For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ.” (1 Corinthians 2:16, NASB)

Your vocabulary is given to you by faith. Faith is also the only system of perception that unlocks spiritual truths. Rationalism and empiricism will not do it. 1 Cor. 1:18 through 1 Cor. 2:16.

“For the word of the cross is foolishness to those who are perishing, but to us who are being saved it is the power of God.” (1 Corinthians 1:18, NASB)

“For since in the wisdom of God the world through its wisdom did not come to know God, God was well-pleased through the foolishness of the message preached to save those who believe.” (1 Corinthians 1:21, NASB)

“For I determined to know nothing among you except Jesus Christ, and Him crucified. I was with you in weakness and in fear and in much trembling, and my message and my preaching were not in persuasive words of wisdom, but in demonstration of the Spirit and of power, so that your faith would not rest on the wisdom of men, but on the power of God.” (1 Corinthians 2:2-5, NASB)

“For to us God revealed them through the Spirit; for the Spirit searches all things, even the depths of God. For who among men knows the thoughts of a man except the spirit of the man which is in him? Even so the thoughts of God no one knows except the Spirit of God.” (1 Corinthians 2:10-11, NASB)

Faith in its verb form “to believe” is πιστεύω (pisteuō) and is a transitive verb that must have a subject and an object. The whole merit of faith is in the object. Faith has a two-fold object as far as relationship with God is concerned. In salvation, the object of faith is the Lord Jesus Christ. Following salvation, the object of faith is the Word of God, which gives us the mind of Christ whereby He is exalted. Acts 16:31; John 3:15; 1 Cor. 2:16.

“They said, “Believe in the Lord Jesus, and you will be saved, you and your household.”” (Acts 16:31, NASB)

“so that whoever believes will in Him have eternal life.” (John 3:15, NASB)

“For WHO HAS KNOWN THE MIND OF THE LORD, THAT HE WILL INSTRUCT HIM? But we have the mind of Christ.” (1 Corinthians 2:16, NASB)

All of the believing in the world secures nothing but condemnation from God. However, one little bit of faith in the object of our Lord Jesus Christ secures salvation. The efficacy of faith lies in the object of faith. Faith is progressive in the Christian life as we grow spiritually, but non-progressive in salvation. See category on Grace and Faith Union.

Your mathematical ability was based on faith when you learned that $2 + 2 = 4$. Your geographical knowledge is often based on faith. Christians wince when you call faith a system of thinking.

The word “heart” in the Bible does not emphasize the heart-pump, but emphasizes a system of perception. There is a head knowledge that the Bible calls gnosis – the Greek word for knowledge. There is also believed knowledge that the Bible calls epignosis – the Greek word for full knowledge.

Faith is also a non-meritorious system of thinking and understanding that involves volition. When you listen to the communication of Bible doctrine while filled with the Holy Spirit, God the Holy Spirit teaches your human spirit so you can comprehend the spiritual information. The Holy Spirit then transfers that spiritually understood information to the left lobe of your soul as gnosis. Now, you must believe that Bible doctrine to allow the Holy Spirit to convert gnosis into epignosis and transfer it to the right lobe of your soul also called the heart. This epignosis Bible doctrine is now applicable to the situations and problems in life.

When people start rejecting the principle of faith altogether as a system of perception, they get into problems. For example, it takes a lot less faith to believe the biblical account of God and creation than believing the unproven theory of evolution with all its stages and gaps.

The Greek noun for faith is πίστις (pistis) and means to believe. The verb form to believe is πιστεύω (pisteuo). To believe in Christ, therefore is to have faith in Christ. To have faith in Christ is to believe in Christ. Faith is the only means of entering God’s plan of grace. Heb. 11:1.

“Now faith is the assurance of things hoped for, the conviction of things not seen.” (Hebrews 11:1, NASB)

In Hebrews 11:1, “the assurance” is ὑπόστασις (hupostasis) in the Greek refers to a contract by which you had agreed to abide by. Faith is a contract with God. God promises to provide if you believe Him. God provides all of the grace resources necessary for function in the Christian way of life. God provides cleansing of all sin when you get out of line and name your known sins to God the Father. 1 John 1:9.

“If we confess our sins, He is faithful and righteous to forgive us our sins and to cleanse us from all unrighteousness.” (1 John 1:9, NASB)

In Hebrews 11:1, “hoped for” does not mean “I hope so.” In the Greek, it is the present passive participle of ἐλπίζω (elpizō) and refers to a reality, a confidence and means “I know so” regarding our confidence in future things. We receive confidence when we operate by faith and we learn by faith. Heaven should be just as certain in your mind as the state or city where you now live. Confidence means you know that you are going to heaven. That is your privilege as a believer. A translation of Hebrews 11:1 is, “Now faith (non-meritorious system of thinking) keeps on being the contract of things which we have not seen but have absolute confidence.”

Faith makes your salvation real and gives you confidence in the spiritual life. You feed your faith with the Word. “The evidence of things not seen” refers to faith as the substance – the contract. Faith is the evidence – a legal term that means proof or reality. “Things” is πράγμα (pragma) and refers to a transaction. “Not seen” is the proof of transactions not observed.

A believer can use rationalism and empiricism in their job in a bona fide way. Rationalism is the use of the mind and is an intellectual approach. Empiricism is the use of the senses to draw conclusions. Neither rationalism nor empiricism ever reveal spiritual truth. Spiritual IQ or the amount of epignosis in the soul is developed by faith-transfer. See category on Grace Apparatus for Perception.

Eating and Drinking as a Picture of Faith

Faith has no merit in and of itself. Eating has no merit in and of itself. Drinking has no merit in and of itself. Just as everyone has the ability to eat food and drink water, so everyone has the ability to be saved. Ability is God doing the work. John 6:31-40; John 4:14.

“but whoever drinks of the water that I will give him shall never thirst; but the water that I will give him will become in him a well of water springing up to eternal life.”“ (John 4:14, NASB)

All members of the human race (moral, immoral, and religious) have faith. Faith in something or in people does not save. Only faith in the substitutionary atoning work of Jesus Christ on the Cross saves! It is always in the object of faith that does the work. For salvation, the Lord Jesus Christ has already done all of the work and we believe in Christ’s substitutionary spiritual death on the Cross for all of our sins for salvation.

Everyone is saved exactly the same way. Using bread as an analogy, once you eat the bread, (faith in the Lord Jesus Christ) the bread (the Lord Jesus Christ) is inside you. Once you believe in Jesus Christ, Christ is in you. John 14:20; John 6:48-59.

““In that day you will know that I am in My Father, and you in Me, and I in you.” (John 14:20, NASB)

The Development of Faith

Faith is developed by using the Word of God. We exercise faith by using faith-rest in everyday living. Using faith-patience in everyday living is the faith in the epignosis Bible doctrine that makes up the edification complex of our soul. Rom. 10:17; Heb. 4:1-3; James 1:3.

“So faith comes from hearing, and hearing by the word of Christ.” (Romans 10:17, NASB)

“Therefore, let us fear if, while a promise remains of entering His rest, any one of you may seem to have come short of it. For indeed we have had good news preached to us, just as they also; but the word they heard did not profit them, because it was not united by faith in those who heard. For we who have believed enter that rest, just as He has said, “AS I SWORE IN MY WRATH, THEY SHALL NOT ENTER MY REST,” although His works were finished from the foundation of the world.” (Hebrews 4:1-3, NASB)

“knowing that the testing of your faith produces endurance.” (James 1:3, NASB)

Faith is exercised in suffering. Faith is exercised in the filling of the Holy Spirit. Faith is exercised in occupation with Christ. The word “perfector” in Hebrews 12:2 indicates that occupation with Christ builds more or greater faith. 1 Peter 1:7-8; Gal. 5:22-23; Heb. 12:2.

“so that the proof of your faith, being more precious than gold which is perishable, even though tested by fire, may be found to result in praise and glory and honor at the revelation of Jesus Christ; and though you have not seen Him, you love Him, and though you do not see Him now, but believe in Him, you greatly rejoice with joy inexpressible and full of glory,” (1 Peter 1:7-8, NASB)

“But the fruit of the Spirit is love, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, self-control; against such things there is no law.” (Galatians 5:22-23, NASB)

“fixing our eyes on Jesus, the author and perfecter of faith, who for the joy set before Him endured the cross, despising the shame, and has sat down at the right hand of the throne of God.” (Hebrews 12:2, NASB)

Faith is exercised in the application epignosis Bible doctrine from the right lobe of the soul. Eph. 3:17-20.

“so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith; and that you, being rooted and grounded in love, may be able to comprehend with all the saints what is the breadth and length and height and depth, and to know the love of Christ which surpasses knowledge, that you may be filled up to all the fullness of God. Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us,” (Ephesians 3:17-20, NASB)

Faith is exercised in spiritual maturity. 1 John 5:4-5; Heb. 11:6.

“For whatever is born of God overcomes the world; and this is the victory that has overcome the world—our faith. Who is the one who overcomes the world, but he who believes that Jesus is the Son of God?” (1 John 5:4-5, NASB)

“And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.” (Hebrews 11:6, NASB)

The strongest faith of all is the faith reflected from the edification complex of the soul of a spiritually mature believer. Col. 2:6-7.

“Therefore as you have received Christ Jesus the Lord, so walk in Him, having been firmly rooted and now being built up in Him and established in your faith, just as you were instructed, and overflowing with gratitude.” (Colossians 2:6-7, NASB)

The Measure of Faith

Faith is thinking, making use of epignosis Bible doctrine, and applying the Word of God from your soul's frame of reference. Eph. 3-4; Col. 1; Rom. 12:3; Rom. 12:6.

“For through the grace given to me I say to everyone among you not to think more highly of himself than he ought to think; but to think so as to have sound judgment, as God has allotted to each a measure of faith.” (Romans 12:3, NASB)

“Since we have gifts that differ according to the grace given to us, each of us is to exercise them accordingly: if prophecy, according to the proportion of his faith;” (Romans 12:6, NASB)

The content of what you are thinking is what gives faith validity. Doctrine in the right lobe of the soul expresses itself through faith. Epignosis Bible doctrine in the soul is what gives faith expression, power, animation, vigor, and inner beauty. There is no limit to the amount of faith you can have, but your faith is no stronger than your doctrinal content.

Faith merely expresses Bible doctrine. Faith becomes of larger and larger caliber when Bible doctrine comes through it by expressing itself and apply itself to various situations in life. Faith appropriates the first point of Bible doctrine at the point of salvation, but the process is reversed after you are saved. You need doctrine to give power to faith.

For the believer's life to be meaningful, they must depend upon the intake of Bible doctrine. When we stagger, we don't lack faith, but we lack the object of faith or the Word of God as epignosis Bible doctrine applied to the situation.

Faith Synonyms

There are number of synonyms found in the Scripture for faith. The five listed below emphasize faith as non-meritorious.

"Calls on the name of the Lord" in Joel 2:32, Acts 2:21, and Romans 10:13.

"And it will come about that whoever calls on the name of the LORD Will be delivered; For on Mount Zion and in Jerusalem There will be those who escape, As the LORD has said, Even among the survivors whom the LORD calls." (Joel 2:32, NASB)

"AND IT SHALL BE THAT EVERYONE WHO CALLS ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED." (Acts 2:21, NASB)

"for WHOEVER WILL CALL ON THE NAME OF THE LORD WILL BE SAVED." (Romans 10:13, NASB)

"Eat and drink eat" in the communion service. 1 Cor. 11:24-26.

"and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "This is My body, which is for you; do this in remembrance of Me." In the same way He took the cup also after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood; do this, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." For as often as you eat this bread and drink the cup, you proclaim the Lord's death until He comes." (1 Corinthians 11:24-26, NASB)

"Come." Matt. 11:28.

"Come to Me, all who are weary and heavy-laden, and I will give you rest." (Matthew 11:28, NASB)

"As received Him" as receiving a gift. John 1:12.

"But as many as received Him, to them He gave the right to become children of God, even to those who believe in His name," (John 1:12, NASB)

"Heed the good news." Rom. 10:16.

"However, they did not all heed the good news; for Isaiah says, "LORD, WHO HAS BELIEVED OUR REPORT?" (Romans 10:16, NASB)

You will find that where salvation is being discussed, the word "believe" is a synonym for faith in context. 1 John 5:1.

"Whoever believes that Jesus is the Christ is born of God, and whoever loves the Father loves the child born of Him." (1 John 5:1, NASB)

Five Hebrew Words For Faith in the Old Testament

In Genesis 15:6, "faith" is אָמַן ('aman) and is used primarily for salvation faith. Aman means to use someone as a prop, a foundation, a crutch. Old Testament believers were saved by faith in Jesus Christ. They knew Him then as Yahweh (pronunciation of the tetragrammaton YHWH).

"Then he believed in the LORD; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness." (Genesis 15:6, NASB)

In Psalm 37:3-5 and in Psalm 91:2, “trust” is בִּטַּח (bâṭach) and is a wrestler’s term for a body slam. It means taking a problem, a tragedy, a difficulty, a testing and put it on the Lord, thereby slamming it down on Him.

“Trust in the LORD and do good; Dwell in the land and cultivate faithfulness.” (Psalms 37:3, NASB)

“I will say to the LORD, “My refuge and my fortress, My God, in whom I trust!”” (Psalms 91:2, NASB)

In Psalm 57:1, “takes refuge” is חָסָה (châsâh) and means to take or seek refuge and shelter. This is like a rabbit being chased by a wolf, who jumps into a little crack in the rock and where the wolf can’t get his nose in and therefore the rabbit is safe. This is a grace concept whereby we are helpless, hopeless, useless and weak, but we have God’s grace resources. The crack in the rock is the provision of Bible doctrine. Believers are to use faith-rest to apply doctrine to life’s situations.

“For the choir director; set to Al-tashheth. A Mikhtam of David, when he fled from Saul in the cave. Be gracious to me, O God, be gracious to me, For my soul takes refuge in You; And in the shadow of Your wings I will take refuge Until destruction passes by.” (Psalms 57:1, NASB)

In Job 13:15, “hope” is יָחַל (yâchal) and means to hurt badly and to have a faith stronger than your hurt.

““Though He slay me, I will hope in Him. Nevertheless I will argue my ways before Him.” (Job 13:15, NASB)

In Isaiah 40:31, “wait for” is קָוָה (qavah) a picture of a small thread being weaved into a gigantic rope and refers to the faith of the mature believer. This is faith intertwined with epignosis Bible doctrine in the soul and claiming the promises of God.

“Yet those who wait for the LORD Will gain new strength; They will mount up with wings like eagles, They will run and not get tired, They will walk and not become weary.” (Isaiah 40:31, NASB)

Examples of Faith

Hebrews 11 has a simple outline of the definition of faith and the illustration of faith using Old Testament believers to spotlight it. In Hebrews 11:2, “the men of old” refers to Old Testament believers such as Abel, Noah, Abraham, etc. “Gained approval” is the aorist passive indicative of μαρτυρέω (martureō) and means they made a good report in witnessing. The constative aorist means they did this during their entire spiritual life and experience. They received a “good report” from God. Since they operated by faith, they pleased God. Without faith it is impossible to please God. Heb. 11:6.

“For by it the men of old gained approval.” (Hebrews 11:2, NASB)

“And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.” (Hebrews 11:6, NASB)

The Faith and Belief of Abel

Nearly everyone knows the story of Cain and Abel and how Cain murdered his brother. Abel was a believer. In those days, animal sacrifices were offered after salvation. This was a post-salvation experience in the dispensation of the Age of the Gentiles. They were not saved by offering animal sacrifices. They were saved by believing in Jesus Christ as Savior. Gen. 15:6.

“Then he believed in the LORD; and He reckoned it to him as righteousness.” (Genesis 15:6, NASB)

Later, they were not saved by keeping the Mosaic Law. They were saved by personal faith in Jesus Christ. Just like today, you are not saved because you go to church, join a church, kick your tip into the kitty, make the right clucking noises, or yield to some pressure scheme.

In Hebrews 11:4, “By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain” means that through the means of faith, Abel was in fellowship and exercising faith-rest which was the Old Testament form of spirituality.

“By faith Abel offered to God a better sacrifice than Cain, through which he obtained the testimony that he was righteous, God testifying about his gifts, and through faith, though he is dead, he still speaks.” (Hebrews 11:4, NASB)

The faith in Hebrews 11:4 is the faith exercised after salvation. This faith is non-meritorious thinking. The object of faith has the merit, in the case of salvation in Jesus Christ. The faith method of perception is necessary to understanding biblical creation. “Offered” is the aorist active indicative of προσφέρω (prospheerō) and means to bring face to face with God with the reality of the proper use of sacrifices. This is worship, a believer qualified to worship. “A better sacrifice” means it was a better sacrifice than Cain’s sacrifice from God’s standpoint.

In Hebrews 11:4, “through which he obtained the testimony” means that the animal sacrifice he performed was acceptable to God. Why was it acceptable? He was a believer. Adam had instructed both Cain and Abel in animal sacrifices. Abel had been saved and Cain had remained unsaved. The difference between Abel’s sacrifice and that of Cain was belief versus unbelief. This is the same today between Christianity and religion.

In Hebrews 11:4, “that he was righteous” means he was a believer. He received God’s very own righteousness at the point of salvation and kept on having salvation. He also received God’s eternal life at the moment of salvation. He also received the imputation of God’s absolute righteousness (+R). You have to be as righteous as God to live with Him forever. He must receive forgiveness of sins committed after salvation. “God testifying about his gifts” refers to the animal sacrifices and that they were biblical. “And through faith” refers to the faith exercised by Abel in his animal sacrifice. “He still speaks” means that although Abel is long dead, his faith keeps on speaking through the Word of God.

The Lack of Faith and Unbelief of Cain

Cain was unsaved and to him a sacrifice was a sacrifice. Abel was saved and knew that the animal sacrifice commemorated the blood of the Cross, the fact of Jesus Christ would be judged for the sins of mankind. Cain was trying to impress God with what he had done. He was a farmer, so he brought produce to his sacrifice. This was probably apples, pomegranates, lemons, potatoes, etc. The produce portrays the farming ability of Cain. Cain was relying on human good and what he had done from his human nature and the old sin nature. His produce was minus the blood sacrifice and this is what is being emphasized. Gen. 4:2.

“Again, she gave birth to his brother Abel. And Abel was a keeper of flocks, but Cain was a tiller of the ground.” (Genesis 4:2, NASB)

This is the difference between religion and Christianity. Religion is what you can do for God whereas Christianity is what Christ did for us. Religion has good people going to heaven and bad people probably not going anywhere. Christianity provides for bad people going to heaven. Religion relies on human good of man and Christianity relies on the divine good based on the person and work of Christ.

Cain was a religious man and just like religion, he started persecuting Truth right from the start. In the Genesis 4 account, Cain was motivated by jealousy. The implications were that Cain refused to recognize that he was a sinner, bankrupt, under a penalty, and that he was violating the righteousness and justice of God. Abel recognized this.

Cain refused to recognize the curse of man. Religion always denies this. Religion believes that all are righteous, that everyone has some good in them (human good), and the universal brotherhood of man and fatherhood of God. Man fell and is under a curse. Abel recognized this.

Cain refused God's instruction and help. The implication was that Cain didn't feel he needed any help from God and he could do everything by himself. Abel followed the instructions of God and he relied on God's grace provisions. Cain followed an ego-centered operation where his ego demanded that he show what he has done. He followed his mother Eve in this. Abel followed God's instructions and relied on God. Gen. 3:5.

"For God knows that in the day you eat from it your eyes will be opened, and you will be like God, knowing good and evil." (Genesis 3:5, NASB)

Cain wanted a cover, not a cure. This is what is always true of religion. After the Fall, Adam and Eve felt they needed to cover themselves instead of letting God provide. Our Lord chastised the legalism and religiosity of the Pharisees in Matthew 23:27-28 and called them "whitewashed tombs." Gen. 3:7.

"Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs which on the outside appear beautiful, but inside they are full of dead men's bones and all uncleanness. So you, too, outwardly appear righteous to men, but inwardly you are full of hypocrisy and lawlessness." (Matthew 23:27-28, NASB)

"Then the eyes of both of them were opened, and they knew that they were naked; and they sewed fig leaves together and made themselves loin coverings." (Genesis 3:7, NASB)

Cain preferred human viewpoint to divine viewpoint. Human viewpoint has human opinions, rationalism, empiricism, and emotionalism. Abel accepted divine viewpoint and lived by it. Human opinions are often good and are looking for a better world. But they always flop because man's opinions are no better than man's strength. Cain became a murderer. 1 John 3:11-15.

"For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous. Do not be surprised, brethren, if the world hates you. We know that we have passed out of death into life, because we love the brethren. He who does not love abides in death. Everyone who hates his brother is a murderer; and you know that no murderer has eternal life abiding in him." (1 John 3:11-15, NASB)

We are instructed to avoid the path of Cain. Jude 1:11; 1 John 3:11-12.

"Woe to them! For they have gone the way of Cain, and for pay they have rushed headlong into the error of Balaam, and perished in the rebellion of Korah." (Jude 1:11, NASB)

"For this is the message which you have heard from the beginning, that we should love one another; not as Cain, who was of the evil one and slew his brother. And for what reason did he slay him? Because his deeds were evil, and his brother's were righteous." (1 John 3:11-12, NASB)

The Unsuccessful Search For Enoch

Enoch didn't die. He had maximum Bible doctrine in his soul. He was a mature believer. Heb. 11:5.

"By faith Enoch was taken up so that he would not see death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD TOOK HIM UP; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.” (Hebrews 11:5, NASB)

When Enoch was 65 years old, he had a baby boy named Methuselah who lived the longest in the Bible, 969 years. Why? Because of different climactic conditions, different nutrition, strength of body, and because God willed it. Why do you live as long as you live today? By the grace of God among other things. Gen. 5:21.

“Enoch lived sixty-five years, and became the father of Methuselah.” (Genesis 5:21, NASB)

Enoch “walked with God” and was translated at the age of 365. Gen. 5:23-24.

“So all the days of Enoch were three hundred and sixty-five years. Enoch walked with God; and he was not, for God took him.” (Genesis 5:23-24, NASB)

In Genesis 5:24 “took” is לקח (lâqach) in the Hebrew and means to take, to carry away. In the Septuagint, “took” is the aorist passive indicative of μετατίθημι (metatithēmi) and means to change and to transport, to translate. Enoch was transferred from earth to Paradise. He was transferred without death physically. Why?

In Hebrews 11:5, “see” is ὁράω (horaō) and means to see with the eyes, to see with the mind, to perceive, to know, to see by experience. “And he was not found” is the imperfect tense, passive voice of εὐρίσκω (heuriskō) and means he wasn’t discovered, they continually searched but didn’t discover him. “Because God took him up” Why? “He obtained the witness” is the perfect tense of μαρτυρέω (martureō) and means to bear witness, to give an honorable report. “He was pleasing to God” is the perfect active infinitive of εὐαρεστέω (euarestēō) and means to be totally pleased. Enoch was translated to impress the antediluvian civilization with the faith-rest life. He was a mature believer who lived by Bible doctrine and when he was translated, transferred, they got the point! He lived by faith. This is what pleased God.

“By faith Enoch was taken up so that he would not see death; AND HE WAS NOT FOUND BECAUSE GOD TOOK HIM UP; for he obtained the witness that before his being taken up he was pleasing to God.” (Hebrews 11:5, NASB)

In Hebrews 11:6, “And without faith” means that apart from faith it is impossible. How is God real to us today? Only through Bible doctrine in the right lobe of the soul in the frame of reference, memory center, conscience and divine viewpoint.

It is impossible to please God apart from using the faith-rest life. To be in the plan of God and to come face to face with God in the spiritual life, faith-rest is necessary. It is necessary to believe the Word of God and claim His promises in Scripture.

“And without faith it is impossible to please Him, for he who comes to God must believe that He is and that He is a rewarder of those who seek Him.” (Hebrews 11:6, NASB)

God keeps on being a rewarder and a giver of grace to those that apply epignosis Bible doctrine to their life. You cannot pervert grace. God becomes a giver from the ultimate source of Himself. “To those who seek him” means to investigate it thoroughly, to be positive to Bible doctrine. Apart from Bible doctrine, it is impossible to love God, to seek God, or to know God.
