

The Bible, Suggested Chapter Titles For Learning Bible Content

Suggested chapter titles is intended to help the student get a bird's eye view of chapter content of the Scriptures. Having the content of the Word of God at your fingertips for ready use is the reward for learning these chapter titles. They are not hard to master, but discipline must be mixed with endurance. Probably many will start and few will finish. Thank God our salvation is more sure.

Chapter Titles

One of the greatest methods to master the Bible is to learn chapter content by labeling each chapter with a title. These suggested titles will help you think through a book and will aid greatly the technique of meditation. It is a very good method to get the Bible at your fingertips for daily living. Some suggestions are to set yourself a 3-5 year goal to master chapter title content. There are 1189 chapters in the Bible. Overlearn them by review, review, review - so that you will know them like you know John 3:16. Discipline yourself to review chapter titles like you review Scripture passages. Many people learn while traveling down the highway. Then challenge others to learn them.

Why Learn Chapter Titles?

As you can see, learning even the Old Testament is a gigantic task. Yet, Christians have never been challenged with anything but blood, sweat, and tears. Today, there are few challenges to think! We have been barraged with "third grade" communications which stultify the mind and blind our vision.

Therefore, it is a great challenge to learn Bible chapter titles and to master them. It takes discipline and consistency, but it fortifies your mind with the whole counsel of God and offers untold blessings. I personally have been memorizing titles for several years, overlearning them by constant review, and thinking "through" books for meditative benefit. It definitely has given me more of an appreciation of the whole counsel and content of God. It is a constant delight.

If you spend 15 minutes per day for five years (1826 days) you will come close to mastering the Old and New Testaments in this way. Actually very few are poor memorizers, the problem is in another area - lack of consistency, self-discipline, and endurance. Most of us are spiritually lazy and set no goals in the Christian life and therefore accomplish very little.

The Psalms will be the greatest test of memorizing yet faced by the sincere Bible student. It will take several years of sowing, before you will reap the tremendous meditative impact of knowing what is in each of the Psalms. Never give up! Never give up! Just keep on keeping on! And above all claim the promise of Ephesians 3:20. If you don't know that verse, look it up; if you aren't using it, no wonder life is boring around your house.

"Now to Him who is able to do far more abundantly beyond all that we ask or think, according to the power that works within us," (Ephesians 3:20, NASB)

Don't forget to keep on reviewing. Do you still know Genesis--as far as chapter title content? How about Leviticus--what is Leviticus 17? Do you know as you read this? Continue to set goals and be a faithful steward in attaining those goals. At this point you are more than half through the entire Bible.

The Song of Solomon

Due to the fact that this book is very difficult to accurately interpret, a different approach is used to master the book. The following results are the fruit of a study done in the original Hebrew text. The Song of Solomon is in five acts or scenes.

Act 1: (Song of Sol. 1:1-3:5) There are three main characters in the Song plus a fourth who is gone during most of the book. Included are Solomon, the Shulammite Woman, the daughters of Jerusalem, and the Shepherd Lover of the woman.

The Shulammite Woman incurs the wrath of her brothers (her father is dead) because she falls in love with a Shepherd Lover. They live in the south of Palestine, but she is banished to the north to work in her brother's vineyards by driving out the foxes which spoil the grapes. Solomon is on a mission in the northern part of his kingdom and as his "Cadillac chariot" goes by the vineyards, Solomon, who has a weakness for women, spots this beautiful girl. She is invited to join the harem of Solomon as a daughter of Jerusalem and she goes hoping to get away from her brothers. However, she soon finds out that Solomon wants to woo her as another one of his wives.

Solomon's harem consists of: Wives called queens, Concubines (inferior wives), and Daughters of Jerusalem. The Daughters of Jerusalem were in the harem as servants, chaperons, female guards, etc. So she is now in the harem, however she still loves her Shepherd Lover.

In this book, Solomon is a type of the world - wanting her for his own lust, a believer out of fellowship. The Shulammite Woman is a type of the saved Jews during the Tribulation waiting for the Second Advent. The Shepherd Lover pictures the Lord Jesus Christ absent from the earth until that time.

Act 2: (Song of Sol. 13:6-11) Pictures Solomon returning from the North with his entourage-- scene has one bystander after another describing Solomon in all his glory and beauty and with all his status symbols. Solomon will be turned down by this beautiful woman.

Act 3: (Song of Sol. 4:1-7:9) This scene depicts the Royal Palace where Solomon attempts to woo the Shulammite Woman by the things he says to her, the things she thinks while he is talking, what she says to him, and what the daughters of Jerusalem say. The rain point in this third act is how she remains true to her Shepherd Lover and says no to Solomon in a half-dozen different ways.

Act 4: (Song of Sol. 7:10-8:4) This scene describes the rescue of the Shulammite Woman from the clutches of Solomon. The Shepherd Lover comes to the Royal Palace and delivers her from Solomon and they escape together.

Act 5: (Song of Sol. 8:5-14) Pictures the Shulammite lover returning to her hometown with her Shepherd Lover. It includes the comments of the neighbors, the mother, the brothers, and the public acceptance of the shepherd. Nothing is said about them living happily ever after, but everything ends just real fine.

The Song of Solomon

1. Conversation between Shulammite Woman and the Daughters of Jerusalem.
2. The Shulammite Woman's thoughts of her Shepherd Lover.
3. The Shulammite Woman's search for her lover, her desire to marry him, glimpse of rival lover Solomon in all his glory.
4. The Wooing of King Solomon--no go from her (vs. 16)
5. The Shulammite Woman's thoughts concerning her Shepherd Lover. (As Solomon woos, she thinks of the one she truly loves)

6. Solomon woos, all in the harem like her, but she remains true to her Shepherd Lover.
7. The Prince's daughter (one of Solomon's wives) distracts him, and the Shulammite Woman escapes with her lover.
8. Shulammite Woman and Shepherd Lover together again in their home town, everything is fine.

5. The Deterrent for Judah (That they might acknowledge their sin--and that God would remember them)

Again, the memorizing of chapter titles is no easy task. Few believers could do these titles (whole Bible) in less than five years. Remember one must overlearn them until they are in the meditative process. There is an amazing reward for those who do get the entire Bible learned through this process. It is being conversant with the whole counsel of God and its impact in your live-a-day world.
